Element Critical Northern Virginia One

Located on the beltway and less than 500 meters from the original MAE-East Internet Exchange Point, this fiber-rich building was acquired in late 2016 and renovated to meet the high densities and demands of today's enterprise user. Conveniently situated just 1.5 miles from the Tyson's Metro Station, the facility is 14 miles from both Dulles (IAD) and Reagan (DCA) airports.
